ADVANCED PLACEMENT ENGLISH LITERATURE 12

Students will be able to use their learning experiences in order to independently:

1. Comprehend and evaluate complex texts across a range of disciplines.
2. Be a critical consumer of texts and other media to recognize, understand, and appreciate multiple perspectives and cultures.
3. Produce writing to address mode of writing, task, purpose, perspective, and intended audience
4. Communicate effectively for varied purposes and audiences.
5. Engage in collaborative activities in order to analyze and synthesize ideas and positions.
6. Evaluate collaborative and online discussion activities in order to learn, reflect, and respond.
7. Read complex imaginative literature (fiction, drama, and poetry) appropriate for college-level study.
8. Write an interpretation of a piece of literature that is based on a careful observation of textual details, considering the work's structure, style, and themes; the social and historical values it reflects and embodies; and such elements as the use of figurative language, imagery, symbolism, and tone.
9. Compose in several forms (e.g., narrative, expository, analytical, and argumentative essays) based on students' analyses of literary texts.
10. Write through several stages or drafts, with revision aided by teacher and peers.
11. Write informally (e.g., response journals, textual annotations, collaborative writing), which helps students better understand the texts they are reading.
12. Revise works to develop wide-ranging vocabulary used appropriately and effectively; variety of sentence structures, including appropriate use of subordination and coordination; logical organization, enhanced by techniques such as repetition, transitions, and emphasis; balance of generalization and specific, illustrative detail; and effective use of rhetoric including tone, voice, diction, and sentence structure.
